

5 Reasons To Join ASA

5 You will have access to industry resources that can help you improve your management and technical skills and help you operate a more profitable business. Plus, you'll have EXCLUSIVE opportunities to meet and network with other industry professionals.

4 Industry and association information will be at your fingertips through numerous ASA publications, including online resources, communication fliers and access to ASA's Members Only section of the Web site – www.ASAsShop.org – filled with information packaged EXCLUSIVELY for ASA members.

3 You will have access to more than 35 money-saving, profit-generating benefits and services available in a package designed EXCLUSIVELY for ASA members.

2 Someone will always be fighting for your rights on Capitol Hill because ASA has its own full-time Washington, D.C., representative, Bob Redding, working EXCLUSIVELY on behalf of independent automotive service and repair professionals and with local groups when regional issues arise.

1 The Automotive Service Association® (ASA) is the only not-for-profit trade association of its kind EXCLUSIVELY dedicated to and governed by independent service and repair professionals like you. You know your business and we know our members. That makes for a perfect partnership.

When it comes to meeting your business needs, ASA stands above the rest by helping you achieve and exceed standards of excellence! To make ASA your source for networking, savings and success, simply call ASA's membership department at (800) 272-7467, ext. 295, and mention the code "Five."
